CONGRESS.

Washington, Dec. 13th.

In Schate, no public business of importance was transacted.

In the House, Mr. Flercher of Mass. made a statement in reply to a communication in the "Washington Globe," signed by the members of the Committee of "Ways and Means" in reference to Mr. Fletcher's specch in Faneuil Hall. Mr. Fletcher denied having made use of the language attributed to him by the Card published in the Globe, insisted that his remarks in pected to sit down. Fancull Figil contained nothing which was not 000 to the Marquis of true, and not, in fact, sustained by the publication. He concluded by saying; that although; he was always ready to perform his duty, yet; the course pursued-towards-him personally by the majority of the Committee, compelled him to request the flourse to discharge him from act. called out upon the sixth night of its perform | backs tuined to the quarter from whence the ing longer on that Committee . Mr. Cambres lung My Angreen and My Janes, of the majorit for the Committee, replied to Mr Fletcher, to dramatic writing. reiterating the charges made in the article in the Globe, and attacking Mr. Pletcher, after the most approved style of street hackguardism. The question was Hien put, on Mr Fletcher's request, and he was discharged. The unfinished business of I uesday was then taken-up, being the motion of Mr Adams to refer all the petitions against the annexation of Texas to a select committee. CARADK: Our news from Canada, since Sand tyr consists of nothing more than details of ocibiances, the aubstance of which we sublished yesterday. For the present, there appears but little doubt that the progress of the Revolutionists is effectually interropted, if their power is not entirely destroyed. Their triends attribute this ill success to the unfortunate occurrences which hurried them into the contest before the maturity of their plans and the completion of their pregarations.

A spirit has certainly been manifested in their secentairuggles, on the part of the Revolutionists which the Authorities of the established Covernment will not easily subdue. The time has not yet arrived for the successful operation of that spirit. But we believe it to be fast spreading and growing, and that old men will live to see the day when the power of Britain is extinguished upon this Continent:

FIRE IN PROVIDENCE. We learn from Brigg's Bulletin, that a fire broke out in Providence yesterday, about half past 6 o clock, A. M. in a street, occupied by Reter Grinnell and Son as an extensive Hardware and Paint Store, which of the property saved; loss estimated at from $30,000 to $56,000 probably fully insured.

The morning was very cold, but by the active exertion of the Firemen, the fire was prevented from extending. The fire was probably caused by spontaneous combustion.

There he insisted on remaining until he should be regularly brought to trial for high treason. At last a stratagein was resorted to, to induce him to remove. One morning two soldiers of the town guard appeared in his apartment in the prison, and informed him that they had come to scene: escort him to the justiciary court, where the judges were assembled, and waiting for his presence, where they might proceed with his trial for high treason. Overjoyed with the delight. ful intelligence, the laird instantly accompanied the soldiers down stairs, when the latter invinggot him fairly outside the jail, locked the doorto prevent his re-entering, and deliberately walked off, leaving the amazed and disappointed candidate for a halter, to reflect on the shippery trick that had just been played him.

MASCALBRUNI,

THE ITALIAN ADVENTURER.

Bentley's Miscellany contains an extraordin ary memoir of the most extraordinary Italian arch fiend Mascalligant. It is frum the pen of Capt Madwin, who was an eye-witness to the miservant's execution for a murder in one of the Swiss Cantons. He was, it seems, the sonof a pauper living in the marshes of Ancona, was taken mittee of in his boyhood by an Halian lawyer, whom, in gratitude for his patronage, he robbed and murdered, and then ran away to Paris, where he figured as a man of lashion, and

BOOK! THE attention of School Committees Teachers and Parents is invited to the examination of the "Jureatte Reather," a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teather, a new edition of which, revise i and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been to () stutch wanted in our common schools, and in deed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known ab lines and long expertice in his profession. The pieces in this brok, are chiefly silected from popular works des gued for youth, and it is helieved, will line a health main those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been allopted in a great in my Sch als with the did at punhation, and lawing because ready jud is free from he dan ger of having any aftermone mass one, which is the greatest trouble with all school broks

L'ose commeted with schools or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it shill have the two, , 17 West Market Square
